

New Chief Financial Officer appointed at Moto Hospitality

Statement

Moto Hospitality, the UK's largest Motorway Services Operator, announces the appointment of Claire Catlin as its new Chief Financial Officer, reporting directly to Ken McMeikan, Chief Executive Officer.

Claire joins Moto from Sainsbury's PLC where she headed up the Finance function for the Sainsbury's Argos business. Prior to Sainsbury's Claire previously worked for Inchcape, Home Retail Group and DaimlerChrysler.

Claire will take over as CFO from Robert Prynne on Monday 4th May, with a smooth transition planned through to the end of May.

Commenting on the announcement Ken McMeikan said:

"I am delighted that Claire has joined Moto. She has a proven track record of identifying opportunities for innovation and business growth. I believe her experience will be invaluable as we set out to deliver our vision 'To Transform the UK's Rest Stop Experience', as well as successfully navigate our way through the challenges presented by Coronavirus.

I would also like to thank Robert on behalf of the Board for his invaluable contribution throughout his 28 years tenure, during which time the business has grown successfully. We wish Robert well for the future."

Claire Catlin comments:

"I am excited to be joining Moto as CFO. Moto is a great business with an excellent track record of growth and a strong financial position. I look forward to working with the Board and the team to accelerate further from this great foundation."
